

JOIN US FOR THE 2ND ANNUAL WOMEN'S SUMMIT

THEME: WOMEN AT THE CROSSROADS

Saturday, May 3rd 2025 | 12:00 – 3:00 PM (Doors Open at 11:45)

Christ Presbyterian Church, 944 E. Gorham St., Madison

Free lunch provided | Registration required

Our speakers:

Keynote address: Dr. Christine Garlough UNESCO Co-Chair on Gender, Wellbeing & a Culture of Peace, UW-Madison

Topic: As institutions struggle to respond, women are stepping up to build community and create change beyond traditional frameworks—focusing on needs, not division.

Dr. Kaiping Chen – Associate Professor of Computational Communication:

Will speak on how the global digital transformation will shape your daily life and how to amplify your community's voice in the digital age.

Lauren Parnell Marino – International Development Specialist:

Will speak on the motivations of entrepreneurs in the U.S. and Africa, and how they run small- and medium- sized businesses.

Dena Eakles – Founder, Echo Valley Farm, Southwestern Wisconsin:

Will speak on advancing sustainable living and peace in the face of our home, the earth, being in peril.
